

The Vision of Freemasonry

Our vision is to have freemasonry recognized within the community as an organization of high moral and social standards that benefits its members and the community.

United Grand Lodge of New South Wales and the Australian Capital Territory.